

A perfect solution for a small café, store or the serious aficionado.

Options

- Custom paint color
- Brass hammered roof
- Giesen Roast Profiling System (W1A)
- Manual gas valve and gauge (W1M)
- Giesen presentation table

Features

High powered ribbon burner and intense airflow facilitating rapid response roasting performance.	Built for continuous use; will easily facilitate production needs for a café.
Operator can regulate roasting airflow and drum speed (W1A).	Ability to develop roasting profiles for application on larger production machine.
Giesen roast profiling interface with precision control of roasting temperature setpoints (W1A).	Modular machine design with easy access to internal components.
Internal chaff cyclone reducing footprint.	Digital display of Rate of Rise (W1A).
Manufactured in Holland using the highest quality parts and craftsmanship	Reliable technical support by American technicians.
Digital bean and air temperature display.	Easy integration with electrostatic filter.
Prewired to run Cropster data-logging software (W1A).	Digital control of roasting air pressure allowing to finetune flavor profiles (W1A).
Large cooling section with rapid cooling.	Special packages for installation & service.

