

The W6A is a highly versatile roaster, a perfect solution for a store or small warehouse. It makes for a great centerpiece to any café.

Options

- Custom paint color
- Brass hammered roof
- Giesen Roast Profiling System
- Manual gas valve and gauge
- Custom logo on side of the roaster
- Destoner; Electrostatic filter; Afterburner

Features

Giesen roast profiling interface with precision control of roasting temperature setpoints.	Digital control of roasting air pressure allowing to finetune flavor profiles.
Operator can regulate roasting airflow and drum speed.	Oversized cooling section with high speed cooling performance.
Independent direct drive motors for each mechanical function of the machine.	Ability to roast and cool at the same time increasing productivity .
Cast iron faceplate and double walled drum.	Digital display of Rate of Rise (RoR).
Manufactured in Holland using the highest quality parts and craftsmanship.	Reliable technical support by American technicians.
Digital bean and air temperature display.	Easy integration with electrostatic filter.
UL Certified.	Built in chaff cyclone with easy cleaning.
Prewired to run Cropster data-logging software.	Special packages for installation & service.
Compact layout which reduces footprint.

W6A Roaster Specifications

- Capacity: 1 to 13 lbs.; 500g to 6kgs per batch
- Exhaust: 6" diameter
- Power: 230V, single phase
- Roaster burner BTU rating: 66,195 (Max/hour)
- Roaster weight: 900 lbs.; 450kgs
- Gas pressure supply: 7" WCP (natural gas); 12" WCP (propane)
- Roaster Dimensions: L53" x H68" x W29"

